An Evening at the Warner Theatre with Psychic Medium, Angelina Diana

Torrington, CT –Back by popular demand, psychic medium Angelina Diana will be appearing once again at the Warner’s Nancy Marine Studio Theatre on Friday, March 11 at 7:30pm.

Ms. Diana has been a popular radio and television personality, news anchor, news director and spiritual counselor and is the resident psychic medium on Kiss 95.7’s “Courtney in the Morning program”. As a psychic medium, Ms. Diana wishes to be a resource to help clients discover their own natural psychic ability, and if they have experienced loss, to help them understand their connection to their loved ones on the other side. Her on air readings, messages of hope and spiritual teachings have been heard on radio and television shows across the country.

Ms. Diana will be hosting this special event as a fundraiser to benefit the Warner Theatre. Throughout the evening she will be giving patrons some insight on psychic mediums, taking questions from the audience and doing random audience readings. A free reading will also be raffled off to help support the programs at the Warner Theatre.

Tickets for this event are $29.50, *$50 * VIP ticket includes post show meet & greet.

Event Sponsored by Bearingstar Insurance

ABOUT THE WARNER THEATRE

Built by Warner Brothers Studios and opened in 1931 as a movie palace (1,772 seats), the Warner Theatre was described then as “Connecticut’s Most Beautiful Theatre.” Damaged extensively in a flood, the Warner was slated for demolition in the early 1980s until the non-profit Northwest Connecticut Association for the Arts (NCAA) was founded and purchased the theatre. The Warner reopened as a performing arts center in 1983, and restoration of the main lobbies and auditorium was completed in November 2002. In 2008, the new 50,000 square foot Carole and Ray Neag Performing Arts Center, which houses a 300 seat studio theatre, 200 seat restaurant and micro-brewery and expansive school for the arts, was completed. Today, the Warner is in operation year-round with more than 160 performances and 100,000 patrons passing through its doors each season. Over 10,000 students, pre K—adult, participate in arts education programs and classes. Together, with the support of the community, the Warner has raised close to $17 million to revitalize its facilities. NCAA's mission is to preserve the Warner Theatre as an historic landmark, enhance its reputation as a center of artistic excellence and a focal point of community involvement, and satisfy the diverse cultural needs of the region.
