WASHINGTON'S POLITICAL COMEDY KINGS, CAPITOL STEPS RETURN TO THE WARNER

TORRINGTON, CT – Back by popular demand with a brand new show Capitol Steps, an American political satire group, will return to the Warner Theatre on Saturday, February 27 at 8pm.

The Capitol Steps began as a group of Senate staffers who set out to satirize the very people and places that employed them. Together the performers have worked in a total of eighteen Congressional offices and represent 62 years of collective House and Senate staff experience.

Since they began, the Capitol Steps have recorded 29 albums, including their latest, Barackin' Around the Christmas Tree and Obama Mia!. They've been featured on NBC, CBS, ABC, and PBS, and can be heard 4 times a year on National Public Radio stations nationwide during their Politics Takes a Holiday radio specials.

This political satire performing group has an inside track on what is "really" going on and their perspective will definitely raise your humor level to new heights!

Tickets for this performance are $39.50, $29.50 and $19.50 for students showing ID at time of ticket pick up or purchase. For more information on purchasing tickets, please contact the Warner Theatre Box Office at (860) 489-7180 or visit the Warner Theatre Online at www.warnertheatre.org.

About the Warner

Built by Warner Brothers Studios and opened in 1931 as a movie palace, the Warner Theatre was described then as "Connecticut's Most Beautiful Theatre." Damaged extensively in a flood, the Warner was slated for demolition in the early 1980s until the non-profit Northwest Connecticut Association for the Arts (NCAA) was founded and purchased the theatre. The Warner reopened as a performing arts center in 1983, and restoration of the lobbies and auditorium was completed in November 2002. Today, the Warner is in operation year-round with more than 165 performances and some 100,000 patrons passing through its doors each season. NCAA's mission is to preserve the Warner Theatre as an historic landmark, enhance its reputation as a center of artistic excellence and a focal point of community involvement, and satisfy the diverse cultural needs of the region.
