The Warner Stage Company presents: Doubt
Feb. 20-27 at the Nancy Marine Studio Theatre

TORRINGTON, CT – The Warner Stage Company will present Doubt, the Tony Award and Pulitzer Prize-winning play by John Patrick Shanley on February 20-27 in the Warner's Nancy Marine Studio Theatre.

Doubt is set in the St. Nicholas Church School, in the Bronx, during the fall of 1964. It tells the story of Sister Aloysius, a rigidly conservative nun, who begins to suspect an inappropriate relationship between a priest and a young student. Convinced of the priest's guilt, and despite lack of proof, she sets out to expose him.

Doubt is directed by J. Michael Smith and stars Ingrid Marie Smith of Torrington (Sister Aloysius Beauvier), Randy Ronco of Rocky Hill (Father Brendan Flynn), Terri D'Arcangelo of Cromwell (Sister James) and Cassandra Lindsey-Williams of Meriden (Mrs. Miller).

Performances are Saturday, Feb 20 & 27 at 8pm, Sun., Feb 21 & 28 at 2pm and Fri., Feb 26 at 8pm. Tickets are $18.50 and can be purchased by calling the Warner box office at 860-489-7180 or online at www.warnertheatre.org.

The Warner Stage Company's Studio Stage Series is sponsored by Northwest Community Bank.

About the Warner

Built by Warner Brothers Studios and opened in 1931 as a movie palace, the Warner Theatre was described then as "Connecticut's Most Beautiful Theatre." Damaged extensively in a flood, the Warner was slated for demolition in the early 1980s until the non-profit Northwest Connecticut Association for the Arts (NCAA) was founded and purchased the theatre. The Warner reopened as a performing arts center in 1983, and restoration of the lobbies and auditorium was completed in November 2002. Today, the Warner is in operation year-round with more than 165 performances and some 100,000 patrons passing through its doors each season. NCAA's mission is to preserve the Warner Theatre as an historic landmark, enhance its reputation as a center of artistic excellence and a focal point of community involvement, and satisfy the diverse cultural needs of the region.
