GHOST HUNTERS, LIVE!
At the Warner Theatre

Torrington, CT – On Friday, October 22 at 8pm, the stars of SyFy network's Ghost Hunters and founders of The Atlantic Paranormal Society (TAPS) will share their ghoulish adventures from the stage of the Warner Theatre in Torrington, CT.

Jason Hawes and Grant Wilson, along with other TAPS members investigate locations of interest across the country. The team sets up electronic equipment in apparent paranormal "hot spots" and, through the use of various electronic equipment, spends several hours taking electromagnetic field and temperature readings, recording audio for electronic voice phenomena and filming with digital video cameras.

Share in their adventures, Friday, Oct 22 at Torrington's Warner Theatre. For more information, call the Warner box office at 860-489-7180 or go online to www.warnertheatre.org

ABOUT THE WARNER THEATRE

Built by Warner Brothers Studios and opened in 1931 as a movie palace (1,772 seats), the Warner Theatre was described then as "Connecticut's Most Beautiful Theatre." Damaged extensively in a flood, the Warner was slated for demolition in the early 1980s until the non-profit Northwest Connecticut Association for the Arts (NCAA) was founded and purchased the theatre. The Warner reopened as a performing arts center in 1983, and restoration of the main lobbies and auditorium was completed in November 2002. In 2008, the new 50,000 square foot Carole and Ray Neag Performing Arts Center, which houses a 300 seat studio theatre, 200 seat restaurant and micro-brewery and expansive school for the arts, was completed. Today, the Warner is in operation year-round with more than 160 performances and 100,000 patrons passing through its doors each season. Over 10,000 students, pre K—adult, participate in arts education programs and classes. Together, with the support of the community, the Warner has raised close to $17 million to revitalize its facilities. NCAA's mission is to preserve the Warner Theatre as an historic landmark, enhance its reputation as a center of artistic excellence and a focal point of community involvement, and satisfy the diverse cultural needs of the region.
