Kenny Vance & The Planotones Back by Popular Demand
At the Warner Theatre

Torrington, CT – Enjoy an intimate concert in the Warner's Nancy Marine Studio Theatre with Kenny Vance & The Planotones, Friday, November 12 at 8pm.

Singer/songwriter Kenny Vance has had a long and varied career in music that began in the late 50's with the doo wop groups which then led to his eleven year tenure with Jay and the Americans in the 60's. In the years that followed, he had an expansive career in producing and composing, but in the 90's Kenny Vance returned to his passion---singing. He re-formed the Planotones with Johnny Gale, Kurt "Frenchy" Yahijan, Jimmy Bense, Chip Degaard and Tony Gallino and in 2002, Kenny Vance was inducted into the Vocal Group Hall of Fame.

Come and experience the best in Doo Wop music when Kenny Vance & The Planotones return to the Warner Theatre. Tickets for this performance are $50 and can be purchased by calling the Warner box office at 860-489-7180 or online at www.warnertheatre.org

ABOUT THE WARNER THEATRE

Built by Warner Brothers Studios and opened in 1931 as a movie palace (1,772 seats), the Warner Theatre was described then as "Connecticut's Most Beautiful Theatre." Damaged extensively in a flood, the Warner was slated for demolition in the early 1980s until the non-profit Northwest Connecticut Association for the Arts (NCAA) was founded and purchased the theatre. The Warner reopened as a performing arts center in 1983, and restoration of the main lobbies and auditorium was completed in November 2002. In 2008, the new 50,000 square foot Carole and Ray Neag Performing Arts Center, which houses a 300 seat studio theatre, 200 seat restaurant and micro-brewery and expansive school for the arts, was completed. Today, the Warner is in operation year-round with more than 160 performances and 100,000 patrons passing through its doors each season. Over 10,000 students, pre K—adult, participate in arts education programs and classes. Together, with the support of the community, the Warner has raised close to $17 million to revitalize its facilities. NCAA's mission is to preserve the Warner Theatre as an historic landmark, enhance its reputation as a center of artistic excellence and a focal point of community involvement, and satisfy the diverse cultural needs of the region.
