LATE NITE CATECHISM 2 - SISTER STRIKES BACK! at the Warner's Nancy Marine Studio Theatre

Torrington, CT – Following last season's wildly popular, Late Nite Catechism, the Warner Theatre is delighted to present the professional tour of the much anticipated sequel, Late Nite Catechism 2- Sister Strikes Back! Performances will be held in the Warner's Nancy Marine Studio Theatre Thursday, Feb 17 – Sunday, Feb 20.

Just when you thought it was safe to go into the classroom...Sister is back with nun-stop laughs! With the blessings of the archdiocese, Sister has assembled banners, filmstrips, mimeographed handouts, historical facts, and hysterical insights as she conducts her "class" in an overview of Heaven and Hell, comparing them to a catholic version of Chutes and Ladders. Late Nite Catechism 2 is already blessed with "heavenly" reviews from critics and audience members alike. With all the wit, wisdom, and wackiness of the original, Late Nite Catechism 2 is bound to bring back former "students" and make millions of new "converts".

Tickets for Late Nite Catechism 2 are $29.50 and can be purchased by calling the Warner box office at 860-489-780 or online at www.warnertheatre.org.

ABOUT THE WARNER THEATRE

Built by Warner Brothers Studios and opened in 1931 as a movie palace (1,772 seats), the Warner Theatre was described then as "Connecticut's Most Beautiful Theatre." Damaged extensively in a flood, the Warner was slated for demolition in the early 1980s until the non-profit Northwest Connecticut Association for the Arts (NCAA) was founded and purchased the theatre. The Warner reopened as a performing arts center in 1983, and restoration of the main lobbies and auditorium was completed in November 2002.

In 2008, the new 50,000 square foot Carole and Ray Neag Performing Arts Center, which houses a 300 seat studio theatre, 200 seat restaurant and micro-brewery and expansive school for the arts, was completed. Today, the Warner is in operation year-round with more than 160 performances and 100,000 patrons passing through its doors each season. Over 10,000 students, pre K—adult, participate in arts education programs and classes. Together, with the support of the community, the Warner has raised close to $17 million to revitalize its facilities. NCAA's mission is to preserve the Warner Theatre as an historic landmark, enhance its reputation as a center of artistic excellence and a focal point of community involvement, and satisfy the diverse cultural needs of the region.
