The Mystery Tour:

CT's Favorite Beatles Tribute Band

TORRINGTON, CT – On Saturday, August 22, 2009 at 8pm at the Warner Theatre's , Nancy Marine Studio Theatre, The Mystery Tour, CT's favorite Beatles Tribute Band is "waiting to take you away".

Four musicians portray the "Fab Four," each playing vintage instruments right out of "Hard Day's Night." In addition, the Mystery Tour have added an element that sets them apart from other Beatles shows - accompanying the songs are a fifth musician on keyboards, recreating the intimate orchestrations of the Beatles' later works. From the lush strings of "Golden Slumbers, to the bright trumpet solo of "Penny Lane," it's all there.

Tickets for this performance are $25 and may be purchased through the Warner box office at 860-489-7180 or online at www.warnertheatre.org

THE WARNER THEATRE

Built by Warner Brothers Studios and opened in 1931 as a movie palace (1,772 seats), the Warner Theatre was described then as "Connecticut's Most Beautiful Theatre." Damaged extensively in a flood, the Warner was slated for demolition in the early 1980s until the non-profit Northwest Connecticut Association for the Arts (NCAA) was founded and purchased the theatre. The Warner reopened as a performing arts center in 1983, and restoration of the main lobbies and auditorium was completed in November 2002. In 2008, the new 50,000 square foot Carole and Ray Neag Performing Arts Center, which houses a 300 seat studio theatre, 200 seat restaurant and micro-brewery and expansive school for the arts, was completed. Today, the Warner is in operation year-round with more than 160 performances and 100,000 patrons passing through its doors each season. Over 10,000 students, pre K—adult, participate in arts education programs and classes. Together, with the support of the community, the Warner has raised close to $17 million to revitalize its facilities. NCAA's mission is to preserve the Warner Theatre as an historic landmark, enhance its reputation as a center of artistic excellence and a focal point of community involvement, and satisfy the diverse cultural needs of the region. To learn more about the Warner Theatre, visit our website: www.warnertheatre.org.
