Critically-acclaimed play ON GOLDEN POND
opens at the Warner's Studio Theatre

TORRINGTON, Conn. 69 Main St. -- The Warner Stage Company will present On Golden Pond directed by Lea Dmytryck (The Fantasticks), July 13th –22nd at the Warner Theatre's Nancy Marine Studio Theatre. The production will close the Studio Theatre's 2006-2007 Stage & Screen Season, which pays tribute to the musicals and plays that have made it onto the big screen as movies.

Hailed by theatre critics as "a work of rare simplicity and beauty," On Golden Pond is the endearing love story between Ethel and Norman Thayer, who return to their water front summer home and learn about themselves and the bonds that tie them to those they love. Henry Fonda and Connecticut's own Katherine Hepburn made the story famous in the movie of the same name.

The show runs at the Warner's Nancy Marine Studio Theatre Friday & Saturday, July 13, 14, 20 & 21 at 8pm; Saturday & Sunday, July 14, 15, 21 & 22 at 2pm and Sunday, June 22 at 7pm. About the Warner Theatre

Built by Warner Brothers Studios and opened in 1931 as a movie palace, the Warner Theatre was described then as "Connecticut's Most Beautiful Theatre." Damaged extensively in a flood, the Warner was slated for demolition in the early 1980s until the non-profit Northwest Connecticut Association for the Arts (NCAA) was founded and purchased the theatre. The Warner reopened as a performing arts center in 1983, and restoration of the lobbies and auditorium was completed in November 2002. Today, the Warner is in operation year-round with more than 160 performances and some 92,000 patrons passing through its doors each season. NCAA's mission is to preserve the Warner Theatre as an historic landmark, enhance its reputation as a center of artistic excellence and a focal point of community involvement, and satisfy the diverse cultural needs of the region. To learn more about the Warner Theatre, visit our website:
