About SWING FOR VICTORY

It was “The Greatest Generation” for so many reasons. Facing the greatest challenges to the freedom and survival of the nation – and resurging from the devastating Great Depression – America united to emerge stronger and more prosperous a nation than before. Now, with this generation facing its myriad challenges at home and abroad, we feel it’s time to tell a story about how we can once again come together around a common purpose and serve our country as each of us can best.

SWING FOR VICTORY! tells the story of The Four F’s, Modernaires-style mixed quartet, comprised of Faith, Fran, Frank and...Phil. Set on the eve of V-Day in 1945, The Four F’s embark on a marathon performance to bolster the enthusiasm of our soldiers and our nation – particularly a group of soldiers in “Bravo Company,” who we have learned are pinned behind enemy lines, with only the sound of their radio to keep their spirits alive.

MUSICAL NUMBERS include: I'll Be Seeing You, As Time Goes By, In The Mood, Sentimental Journey, Chattanooga Choo Choo, It Happened in Monterey, On The Sunny Side of the Street, and many more.

About the Warner

Built by Warner Brothers Studios and opened in 1931 as a movie palace, the Warner Theatre was described then as "Connecticut's Most Beautiful Theatre." Damaged extensively in a flood, the Warner was slated for demolition in the early 1980s until the non-profit Northwest Connecticut Association for the Arts (NCAA) was founded and purchased the theatre. The Warner reopened as a performing arts center in 1983, and restoration of the lobbies and auditorium was completed in November 2002. Today, the Warner is in operation year-round with more than 160 performances and some 92,000 patrons passing through its doors each season. NCAA's mission is to preserve the Warner Theatre as an historic landmark, enhance its reputation as a center of artistic excellence and a focal point of community involvement, and satisfy the diverse cultural needs of the region.
