Torrington, CT - Comic bubble artist, Casey Carle will bring his "eye-popping, belly-laughing, fun-filled bubble extravaganza!" to the Warner's Nancy Marine Studio Theatre on Saturday, March 5 for two shows at 11 am and 3 pm.

BubbleMania brings the fun of bubbles to high art (and science!) for the whole family to enjoy. Loaded with visual comedy, quick wit, music and the untamed, often unbelievable qualities and beauty of bubbles, BubbleMania explores the science and art of making bubbles from intricate and imaginative bubble art forms to "trapping" people inside bubbles!

He has also served as a bubble consultant to Cirque du Soleil, Pepsi Cola and Bailey's Irish Cream. His outstanding scientific and entertainment achievements have been recognized by science and children's museums coast to coast including The Smithsonian Institute.

ABOUT THE WARNER THEATRE

Built by Warner Brothers Studios and opened in 1931 as a movie palace (1,772 seats), the Warner Theatre was described then as "Connecticut's Most Beautiful Theatre." Damaged extensively in a flood, the Warner was slated for demolition in the early 1980s until the non-profit Northwest Connecticut Association for the Arts (NCAA) was founded and purchased the theatre. The Warner reopened as a performing arts center in 1983, and restoration of the main lobbies and auditorium was completed in November 2002. In 2008, the new 50,000 square foot Carole and Ray Neag Performing Arts Center, which houses a 300 seat studio theatre, 200 seat restaurant and micro-brewery and expansive school for the arts, was completed. Today, the Warner is in operation year-round with more than 160 performances and 100,000 patrons passing through its doors each season. Over 10,000 students, pre K—adult, participate in arts education programs and classes. Together, with the support of the community, the Warner has raised close to $17 million to revitalize its facilities. NCAA's mission is to preserve the Warner Theatre as an historic landmark, enhance its reputation as a center of artistic excellence and a focal point of community involvement, and satisfy the diverse cultural needs of the region.
